

By Kevin Siembieda
Happy New Year!

May the New Year bring us all good health, prosperity and joy. I

I hope your New Year's weekend was a fun one. We were back to work on Monday with a lot of extended Christmas Surprise Package orders to fill. (You can still order one up through January 15, 2017.) That Friday and Saturday we were busy with warehouse inventory and the rest of the week seemed like one meeting and planning session after another. Some going late into the night. There have been three nights this week that I have not gotten home before 11:00 PM. Crazy, right? But awesome things are coming.

Some of these meetings involved third party projects that are likely to take 2-3 years before they launch, but we need to lay the groundwork for them now. This includes possible film, television and videogame ventures, and none of them Rifts®. Oddly, this makes them especially exciting because we are used to everyone being interested in

Rifts

®, not our other I.P.s like

Nightbane

® or

Splicers

®, among others.

That does not include projects already in the works, like Rifts® for Savage Worlds hitting stores in the next month or so, and

Rogue Heroes LLC's

still untitled

Rifts® Board Game

being created by

Carmen Bellaire

(Carmen's Kickstarter should happen in March or April). Nor our own big plans for

Rifts®, Robotech®, Heroes Unlimited™, Palladium Fantasy RPG®

Splicers®,

Dead Reign®, and others. All of this has meant creative meetings, scheduling discussions, wrangling talent and financial planning. The week has been so full of such meetings that I'm going to keep this Weekly Update short and fun, and offer up more details next week.

9 days left to get your Surprise Package
– Yep, only 2 weekends, 9 days, till the offer ends January 15, 2017 –
$90-100+ worth of products for $45 (plus shipping)

Extending the Surprise Package offer has become as much a tradition as the offer itself. We do it because we realize many of you are so full of the Christmas Spirit that you spend your money on gifts for your loved ones rather than yourself. This wonderful act of charity often leaves no money for you to buy a Palladium Surprise Package for yourself during the Christmas Season. We think that sacrifice deserves a reward, so we extend the offer so you selfless souls still have a chance to get yourself a Grab Bag after the holidays. (We know this happens because a lot of people over the years have thanked us for the extension for this very reason.)

This year, with so many Savage Worlds players discovering Rifts® for the first time, it gives them the opportunity to get $90-100+ worth of Rifts® books or miniatures for $45 (plus shipping)! And as always, available staff and freelancers are happy to sign all the books in the Surprise Package if you want us to. PLEASE let

Rifts® Savage Worlds players know about this great deal.

They also make great gifts for birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, Valentine's Day and other occasions happening in January and February. And it gives you Johnny Come-Latelies one last chance to snag this great offer.

Only 9 days left. You only have this weekend and the next to get your Surprise Package. The 2016 Surprise Package offer will NOT be extended further.

This is your last chance until next Christmas, so do not delay in placing your order now, before you forget.

Click here for more details and to place your order.

UPDATE: Rifts® Board Game by Rogue Heroes LLC

All those meetings means visitors coming in to discuss projects, proposals and development plans. We showed one such gentleman the growing number of digital sculpts and some of the card art for the Rifts® board game that Palladium has already approved, and he was blown away by what he saw. And this not a guy who is easy to impress. I expect that kind of reaction from gamers who play Rifts

® but not from a Hollywood guy. It only confirmed that Carmen Bellaire is creating something outstanding. We tip our hats to Carmen, his talented crew of sculptors and the artists working on this exciting project.

UPDATE: Rifts® for Savage Worlds

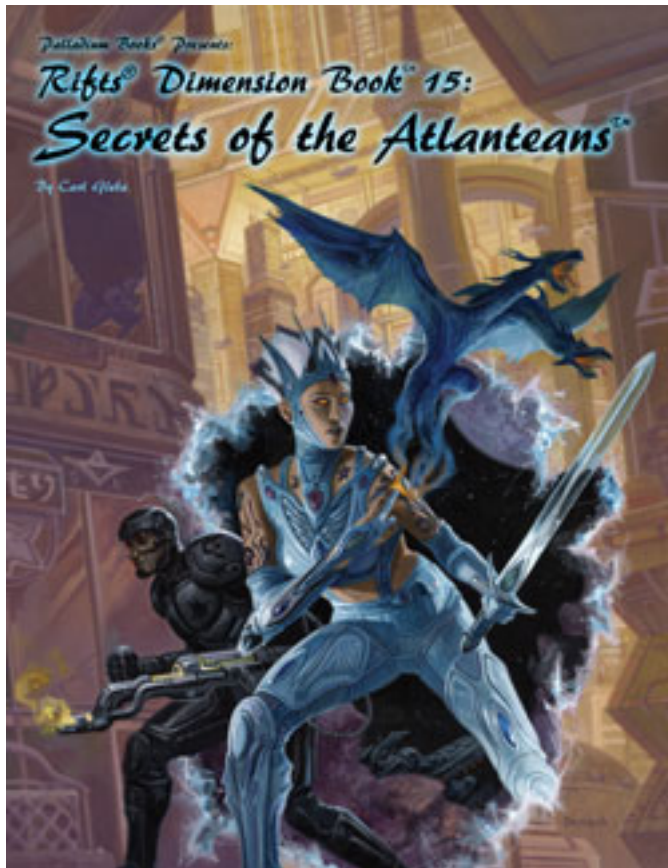

It is our understanding that most Kickstarter backers have now had their rewards shipped to them (we got ours), and that the RPG books and related products, like game shield and maps, will be hitting store shelves in a month or so. I know I saw listings and descriptions in at least two trade publications. Coming to a store near you, very soon.

UPDATE: The Rifter® #76 – January, 2017 release

The Rifter® #76 ships in January. No exact ship date yet.

UPDATE: The Rifter® #77

We are already putting together The Rifter® #77 for a February release. Another fun issue!

UPDATE: Everything else

Everything is in motion and moving toward the finish line:

ALERT: Palladium Game Masters, Gen Con Early Event Submission starts January 22

If you are planning to run any Palladium gaming events at Gen Con, PLEASE finalize your descriptions and details, and start sending them in to NMI. Any Megaversal Ambassador can help, but NMI is the primary event coordinator for Gen Con. Remember, getting your descriptions, time, etc., to Palladium early, helps us get you a dedicated room location to run your games. We appreciate ALL of you, and love that you run games at Gen Con. ALL games and settings wanted. Thank you.

Closing thoughts

Thanks for letting me do a short Update, as I am feeling pretty wiped out and not up to writing anything more extensive. Much more to come. I will close with another round of fan comments from the Surprise Packages . Don't forget, you only have this weekend and the next to get your Surprise Package.
